The unit describes the skills and knowledge required to design and apply suitable make-up techniques for domestic street wear, business, pleasure, social and special occasions for various times of the day or night, including bridal. The application of competency in this unit requires the operator to analyse the clients skin type, facial shape and required context to design and apply make-up using appropriate products and techniques.

Some of the elements you will cover within the course consist of:

- Preparing the client
- Cleansing the face
- Analysing the face and designing a make-up plan
- Selecting products and equipment
- Applying the make-up
- Applying false eyelashes
- Advising client on further product use

The college provides a substantial range of MAC make-up and other brands of make-up for use in class. This is to prepare you for the make-up industry and give you the confidence to apply make-up at a high level using varying ranges and products.
